DESCRIPTION	CATEGORY	ACTUAL	MARKET EST.	AMOUNT
Prepare and file Q4 federal and state corporate tax returns (Form 1120). Reconcile book-to-tax differences and compute deferred tax assets. Review prior-year carryforward schedules for accuracy Market note: Corporate tax return preparation with book-to-tax reconciliation and deferred tax calculations typically requires 10-15 hours for a mid-senior accountant without specialized tax expertise.	tax preparation	3.8h	12.0h	$760.00
Perform analytical review of year-end financial statements. Tie trial balance to general ledger and investigate material variances exceeding 10% of prior period Market note: Analytical review and variance investigation across full financial statements requires extended time for a typical accountant to methodically tie balances and research discrepancies without specialist efficiency.	financial review	2.7h	6.5h	$540.00
Reconcile bank statements across three operating accounts for December. Identify and resolve seven outstanding reconciling items including two stale checks Market note: Multi-account bank reconciliation with investigative resolution of seven reconciling items typically takes 2.5-3.5 hours for an average bookkeeper working at normal pace with interruptions.	bookkeeping	1.1h	3.0h	$220.00
Draft management letter documenting internal control observations from year-end procedures. Recommend segregation of duties improvements for AP workflow Market note: Drafting formal management letters with internal control recommendations requires significant time for non-specialists to research best practices, structure findings, and articulate improvement recommendations.	advisory	1.4h	4.0h	$280.00
Compute Q1 estimated tax payments (federal and state). Prepare vouchers and coordinate payment schedule with client controller Market note: Estimated tax calculations across federal and state jurisdictions with voucher preparation requires research and coordination time for professionals without routine tax compliance experience.	tax preparation	0.8h	2.5h	$160.00

Meeting with CFO to review preliminary financial results and discuss tax planning strategies for upcoming fiscal year. Address R&D credit eligibility questions Market note: Strategic CFO meetings covering financial results and complex tax planning topics typically run longer due to additional preparation, explanation needs, and follow-up documentation for typical professionals.	client meetings	0.9h	1.5h	$180.00
Prepare depreciation schedules for newly acquired fixed assets. Apply MACRS conventions and evaluate Section 179 election benefits for equipment purchases totaling $485K Market note: Depreciation schedule preparation with MACRS conventions and Section 179 analysis for significant asset additions requires substantial research and calculation time for accountants without specialized fixed asset/tax expertise.	tax preparation	1.5h	4.5h	$300.00
Review accounts receivable aging report and assess adequacy of allowance for doubtful accounts. Document methodology and calculate adjustment per ASC 326 (CECL) Market note: CECL allowance methodology documentation and calculation requires technical accounting research and careful analysis of collectability for professionals unfamiliar with current expected credit loss standards.	financial review	0.8h	3.0h	$160.00
	Total Hours	13.00h	37.0h
			TOTAL DUE	$2,600.00
